The route for reaching casaDoria from the airport of Iraklion is of about 78 km (approximately 1 hour and 20 minutes time). The map outlines in dark blue the full path starting from the airport.

Exit the airport parking following the direction "Heraklion - Aghios Nikolaos", and take immediately the national road on your right towards "Heraklion - Rethimno". After about 7,5 km, take the right exit to "Heraklion - Moires" and go down the road till you find a stop sign. At the stop, turn right and follow the direction "Moires".

After about 15 minutes you will reach Aghia Varvara, exactly in the center of the island. At the end of the village, go forward and proceed along the same road. Don't turn right for Kamares-Gergeris-Zaros.

Drive down the valley and, after about 47 from the airport, just before you reach Aghi Deka you'll see on your left side a Silk Oil petrol station, turn on left and follow for "Vagionia-Basiliki". Go on for a few km till you find a sign to Lentas, so turn right following this road and soon you will cross the two villages of Flathiakes and Apesokari. At the end of Apesokari, follow the road keeping the left (do not go forward to Agios Kyrillos). Now you start to climb up the hills until you cross the little village of Miamou, followed by that of Krotos, where suddenly the panorama will open up the wideness of the Lybic Sea. Here you'll find the indications for "Lentas - Dytikos" to the right. Drive down the coast and, always following the main road, you soon will reach Lentas. Little before Lentas you will see on your left the indication to "Loutra - Trahulas", so take the wild road and after about 2,7 km you will be at casaDoria.
